Dear fellow members of Lincoln's Inn

It is my pleasant task to extend to each of you a warm invitation to attend and participate at the Asia Pacific meet of Lincoln's Inn members to be held from 25 to 27 August 2005 at Kuala Lumpur.

As part of the event, our Alumni has put together a programme that is both entertaining and intellectually stimulating. Speakers who are leaders in their respective fields will be presenting papers. Additionally, there is a full day advocacy workshop which will be conducted by Benchers of Lincoln's Inn. This I believe will be most valuable to advocates from all jurisdictions. These sessions are open to non-Lincoln's Inn members as well. The highlight is, of course, the Gala Dinner on August 27 which is certain to put you in high spirits!

Above all, I rely upon the strong ties that bind us as members of Lincoln's Inn to answer the Alumni's clarion call to you to come to Kuala Lumpur and join us in the celebrations. Not only is this an opportunity to meet members of Lincoln's Inn from other jurisdictions whom you may not have met for many years; it is also an opportunity to visit and enjoy Malaysian hospitality.

The Lincoln's Inn Alumni of Malaysia looks forward to seeing as many of you as possible.

Gopal Sri Ram
President

Culture

Kuala Lumpur, the capital of the Federation of Malaysia, is centrally located on the west coast of Peninsular Malaysia. Covering an area of 243 sq km (94 square miles), it lies approximately 35 km from the coast. Kuala Lumpur was conferred city status on February 1, 1972 and declared as a Federal Territory in 1974. The city began as a mining settlement in the late 1800s with the discovery of tin at the confluence of the Klang and Gombak rivers. Although KL's tin trade has since declined, the growth of the city has remained unabated. Today, with a population of 1.8 million, it is the pulse of the nation. Kuala Lumpur leads the country's fast paced development in trade and commerce, banking and finance, manufacturing, transportation, information technology and tourism.

Getting to Kuala Lumpur is easy with over 40 international airlines, including Malaysia Airlines, serving the city's new state-of-the-art KL International Airport (KLIA) at Sepang. Domestic routes are served by Air Asia, Pelangi Air, Singapore Airlines and Royal Brunei Airlines, in addition to Malaysia Airlines. Malaysia is also accessible overland from Thailand and Singapore, via Keretapi Tanah Melayu Bhd which connects principal towns in Peninsular Malaysia.
